NEW HAVEN, CONNECTICUT — William D. Chilton FAIA has been elected to The College of Fellows of the American Institute of Architects (www.aia.org/practicing/awards/AIAB082298). He has directed large corporate headquarters, institutional and high-rise projects within diverse political and cultural environments worldwide. The LEED Gold CalPERS Headquarters Complex in Sacramento for the nation's largest public pension fund is representative of his advancement of client and civic aspirations through design excellence. Previously, he was Ellerbe Becket's President of Architecture and collaborated on Kingdom Centre in Riyadh and the Science Museum of Minnesota in St. Paul. He currently serves on the Advisory Board of the College of Design at the University of Minnesota, the Design Futures Council Executive Board, and is a member of the Urban Land Institute where he served on the juries for the Gerald D. Hines/ULI Student Urban Design Competition in 2007 and 2008.
